Cañada Celebrates Lunar New Year

On February 6, the Cultural Center, Chinese Culture Club, Access Relevance Community (ARC AANAPISI) and Office of Student Life and Leadership Development came together in The Grove to celebrate Lunar New Year, specifically the Year of the Dragon. The event drew a large and enthusiastic crowd, featuring an impressive presentation by students on the significance of Chinese New Year. Attendees enjoyed a feast of noodles and dumplings. The event also featured various activities, with the Calligraphy table standing out as a particularly popular attraction throughout the celebration.

Black History Month

Cañada is holding a month-long celebration featuring events that commemorate the rich cultural heritage, remarkable achievements and undeniable contributions of the Black community.
