

The PCC is here to support students impacted by the recent attacks on Asians in our community.

The Personal Counseling staff at Canada would like to acknowledge the devastating loss of innocent Asian American lives that took place in Atlanta this week. The shock, grief and outrage that follows a tragic event of this magnitude is hard to bear alone. Our personal counselors are available to provide support in the shocking aftermath and we stand in solidarity with all of our students and staff that form our inclusive college campus community. Please reach out to us at any time. Together, we can find solace, strength and resolve to overcome.

During business hours, you can access support by texting us at: (707) 347-9552 to see if we can fit you in as a drop in.

After hours, you can contact our 24/7 personal counseling services by clicking on the Cañada TalkNow image on our home page.
