Item #	Item	Lead (s)	Time	Action
1.	Review and Approve Agenda	Ludmila Prisecar	15 minutes	Action
	The following items are recommended by the Faculty members:
2.	Recommendation to require masks indoors and inside buildings at Cañada College, regardless of vaccination status and State or County orders, until San Mateo County is at the moderate transmission tier for at least 8 weeks and reaches a vaccination rate of 90% of the total population.	Ludmila Prisecar	10 minutes	Action
3.	Recommendation to require face coverings and surgical masks to be available to everyone (employees, students, community members) in all buildings.	Ludmila Prisecar	10 Minutes	Action
4.	Recommendation is that in advance of meeting with students in person during Spring 2022, a written plan is shared and approved by counselors that include detailed information such as which spaces are available to meet with students and when, including the available ventilation available in each space, with plans updated in real-time throughout the semester.	Ludmila Prisecar	10 Minutes	Action
5.	Recommendation to provide employees, including counselors who work in spaces where ventilation and air circulation are not adequate, portable air purifiers with HEPA filters without each request needing to go through supervisors and the District Safety Committee for approval.	Ludmila Prisecar	10 Minutes	Action
6.	Recommendation to put a system in place such that counselors meeting with students in person shall know in advance the vaccination status or negative test results for that student.	Ludmila Prisecar	10 Minutes	Action

7.	Recommendation to outline the steps on how DRC faculty and staff will be notified about students' eligibility to use in-person services. For faculty and staff using SSL, the faculty members propose that the steps on how the system is updated for students who are eligible to do the COVID testing, also be codified.	Ludmila Prisecar	10 Minutes	Action
8.	Adjourn	Ludmila Prisecar	5 Minutes	Action
