STUDENT SUPPORT SERVICES

Comprehensive Program Review

Presented to SSPC
November 8, 2023

What is TRIO?

TRIO Student Support Services (SSS) is a program funded by the United States Department of Education. Our goal is to provide an academic, social, and personal support system for first-generation, low-income, and/or students with disabilities, to assist them with certificate and degree college requirements, the transfer process, and to motivate them towards successful completion of their college education.

Empowering Minds.
Inspiring Resilience.
Rooted in Diversity.

Services

- Priority Registration
- Graduation and Transfer Support
- Academic Counseling and Mentoring
- Financial Literacy Support (in collaboration with Sparkpoint)
- Grant Aid (emergency financial support)

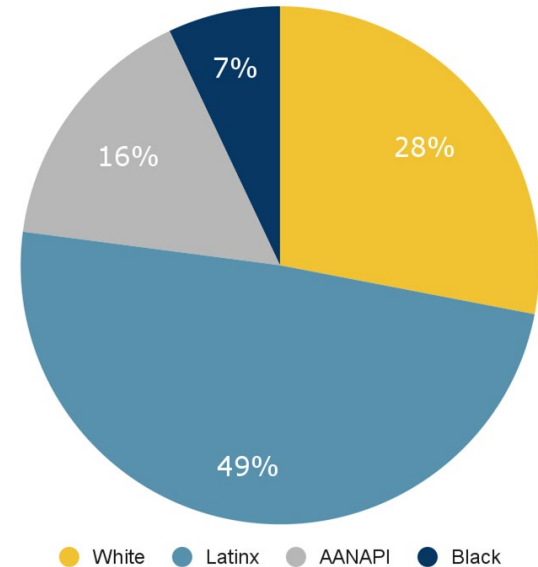

- Workshops (hybrid, video available for students after event)
- Counseling (offered on phone, zoom, and in-person, evening hours)
- College/University Tours (in partnership with Colts U Transfer Center & others)

Impact

TRIO supports students who identify as Latinx (49%) and AANAPI (16%) at our college.

TRIO Students must qualify as Low Income (76%), First Generation in College (81%), or have a Learning or Physical Disability (13%) to participate.

Through well qualified staff, who also come from the BIPOC community and identify with one or more of our eligibility requirements, we are able to provide representation and mentorship to students that are Latinx, AANAPI, and Black identifying.
